Janaki Medical College

Private College in Janakpur

Janaki Medical College, Janakpur

Janaki Medical College (JMC) located in Janakpur, Dhanusha, Nepal has been an initiative of Ram Janaki Health Foundation Pvt. Ltd. Our goal is to deliver health education & healthcare services through its competent professionals in medical in a cademia. Founded in December 1999 in the northern rural part of the Janakpur city, known as Ramdaiya Bhawadi by a group of social and academic entrepreneurs with immense local support, JMC has established itself as one of the most prominent medical colleges affiliated to Tribhuvan University. The college has been able to fulfill the requirements for the intake of 100 students per year right from the following year of its establishment. Later years, an accreditation from Nepal A Medical Council and also from Nepal Nursing Council was provided to the college. The college has opened its two semi-hospitals, one in Ramdaiya with 160 beds, and another one with 365 beds in the city center of Janakpur.

The premise of more than 16 bigahas, a local unit to measure the area of land in Ramdaiya consists of academic & hostel building, hospital facilities & administrative blocks. Teaching learning activities take place in Ramdaiya premises whereas the city hospital of the college provides bedside learning facilities and internships to the students.

JMC is now committed to learn from its past experiences and ready to take the responsibilities which will help ensure the quality health/medical education & hospital services through cutting-edge technologies. As a responsible stakeholder of health education and services, JMC is willing to have the partnership with the government & the community as well. A partnership between the government, local communities and Janaki Medical College for quality health education and services in Dhanusha and adjoining districts!
