About Hospital

Bhima Bhoi Medical College & Hospital in Balangir, Odisha, stands as a prominent tertiary care facility, strategically located about 2 km from Balangir Railway Station and nestled in the heart of Balangir town. This pivotal institution has evolved from the former District Headquarters Hospital into a full-fledged medical college and hospital, aimed at providing comprehensive medical education and healthcare services.

The hospital is equipped to offer tertiary care across 300 beds, with all the major specialties represented. It operates round-the-clock emergency and trauma care facilities, an eye bank, and a blood bank, ensuring critical care services are accessible to all. The hospital's clinical and diagnostic capabilities are robust, supported by a high volume of outpatient and inpatient flow daily, which speaks to its role as a central healthcare provider in the region.
