College of Medical Science (COMS)

Private College in Bharatpur

College of Medical Science (COMS)

College of Medical Sciences (COMS), affiliated with Kathmandu Teaching University, aspires to become a center of excellence in delivering high-quality medical education that is both advanced and affordable. The institution is fully recognized by the Nepal Medical Council, Sri Lanka Medical Council, and the General Medical Council of Great Britain (UK).

A significant milestone in the history of COMS was the establishment of the COMS Teaching Hospital, inaugurated by the dynamic Chairman & CEO, Mr. Nagender K. Pajapati. This facility has transformed the healthcare landscape in the region by integrating clinical expertise with cutting-edge diagnostic capabilities. The COMS Teaching Hospital serves as the primary site for clinical education within the College, featuring a 1,050-bed capacity and housing the largest Intensive Care Unit (ICU) and Operating Theatre (OT) complex in the area, equipped with state-of-the-art technology.
