One year LL.M Program in Corporate Laws, IPR Laws, International Trade Laws and Public Laws.

National Law University Jodhpur (NLUJ) is a premier law school of global repute imparting quality legal education in India since 2001. The Rajasthan State Legislature's National Law University, Jodhpur, Act of 1999 is the substratum from which the citadel of the institution acquires its bailiwick. The University is located in Jodhpur, the Sun City of India- rich in cultural, historic, civic, and ethnic traditions and is dedicated towards academic excellence and value addition in all spheres of student learning and progress.

NLUJ's mission is to create world-class legal scholarship and education which is realized by the tireless efforts of a deeply committed community of outstanding faculty, accomplished students, distinguished alumni and a proficient administration. We offer unparalleled opportunities for experiential learning through our legal aid clinic, internships, and skills-based courses. In addition, our thriving research centers and programs enrich our students' education through daily lectures, roundtable discussions, and conferences, and also serve as catalysts for scholarly work and student involvement on issues and activities in multifarious spheres of law. From working on editorial boards of prestigious journals to spearheading research in specialized centers to participating in pro bono projects to student-run mentorship programmes—the possibilities for learning, networking, and growing professionally at NLUJ are extraordinary.

Over its two and half decade long academic odyssey, the University's wholehearted endeavors have been primarily focused on: consolidation of academic learning; inculcation of the highest ethical standards in our talented students; honouring the canonical legacy of legal systems while contributing pro-actively towards its timely metamorphosis; driving academic innovation and transforming the sphere of education for a prismatic future. NLUJ is proud that as an institute of excellence, it has been fostering and inculcating intellectual and ethical values in the students and thereby facilitating the evolution of law as an instrument of social change since its inception.

Over the years, the University has produced some of the finest minds across the spectrum of legal practitioners and scholarship and has laid deep roots in legal academia while its bounteous flora and fauna in the form of successful graduates thrive and enrichen the surrounding ethos.

NLUJ has a number of strategic interdisciplinary research centers working together on major problems affecting the country and the world. We actively encourage all of our researchers and students to stretch their boundaries and contribute to fields like Intellectual Property, Cross-Border Trade, Arbitration, Tax Law, Transactional Law, Capital Markets, Public & Private International Law, Gender Studies, Child Rights Advocacy, Banking and Competition Law. The Corporate Law Society and Constitutional Law Society engage in the most contemporaneous debates and brain storming sessions in the respective spheres of Corporate Governance and Constitutional mandate and invite experts to contribute through speeches and panel discussions towards the enhancement of student acumen in these specialized domains.

The University is also collaborating with various national and international institutions and professional bodies to make the academic exposure of our students variegated and exemplary. In the past academic year, Memorandum of Understandings were executed with Indian Council of World Affairs for student internships and organizing seminars on international affairs and Indian foreign policy; with Arid Forest Research Institute (AFRI) for cooperation in education, research, and capacity building in the field of environmental law, forestry, and natural resource management; with Kings College London to promote joint degree programmes, faculty and student exchange programmes; with the Attorney General's Chambers, Zanzibar; with General Counsels Association of India (GCAI); with University of Liverpool for student and faculty exchange and with IIT Jodhpur for establishment of Joint Center on Law and Technology. All these collaborations aim to make the educational experience of all stakeholders peerless and make the institution a catalyst for heralding innovation in legal education.

The research-oriented output of the faculty and students has led to the publication of reputed journals in specialized spheres of law. Scholasticus, NLUJ Law Review, Trade Law & Development (TL&D), Indian Journal of Arbitration Law (IJAL), Journal on Governance, Comparative Constitutional Law & Administrative Law Journal (CALJ), Journal of Intellectual Property Studies (JIPS), Indian Competition Law Review and Solventia form the corpus of our academic research output.

The institution has empanelled the finest minds of legal academia including Prof. M.P. Singh, Prof. B.B. Pande, Prof. Upendra Baxi, Prof. Umakant Varottil, Prof. Iain MacNeil, Prof. Christoph Van der Elst, Dr. Philippe Cullet, Prof. Irene-marie Esser and Prof. Chao-Xias Distinguished Professors and International Visiting Faculty to enhance the educational exposure of our talented students who have consistently gained from the rich treasure trove of knowledge and harvested the same in the form of awards and accolades.

The hard work of our students and institutional commitment has borne fruit in the form of multiple accolades and rewards which our students have won in the previous academic year. Some prominent ones include winning of the estimable 21st Willem C. Vis (East) International Arbitration Moot Court Competition, 2024; winners at the 9th NLIU-Justice R.K.
